Are the housewives in their praise of

PURITY FLOUR

They say that it is most certainly indispensable when you want to do superior baking. Of course, you can use other flour—but do you get good results?

Ball Players in Trouble.

In a fight at Frankfort at an early hour Tuesday morning between Steve Tehophais and Milt Stathis, Greek proprietors of the Manhattan Restaurant, and Pat Bohannon, formerly a member of the Louisville Base Ball Club, Grover Land, catcher on the Cleveland American League base ball team, Eph Lillard, a young merchant, Hugh Harrod and Red Crumbaugh, which occurred in the restaurant, Tehophais was shot in the head and badly injured. The Greek will probably die. The young men were arrested shortly after the shooting except Lillard who was arrested at noon and were released on bond.

The cause of the fight was that the young men went into the Greek restaurant and began to fire off shooting crackers and roman candles and when the Greeks protested and started for the police the young men stopped them and the fight began. Tehophais is a strong man and would have been able to handle any member of the crowd by himself but was not equal to a fight with the whole crowd. When the fight began the Greek employees came to the rescue of the proprietor and the young athletes were getting the worst of it when the shot was fired that may prove fatal to the Greek proprietor.

The wounded Greek was taken to a hospital and at first it was thought that he would die in a short time. Consequently Chief of Police Manson took a statement from him in which he said Bohannon shot him. Bohannon denies that he shot the Greek and says that neither he nor Land should have been arrested, that they had nothing to do with the shooting.

Notice.

At the December meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Paris, a resolution was unanimously adopted, directing the Cashier to permit no overchecking of accounts on, and after January 1st, 1911.

As Directors of the institution entrusted to our management, we have taken this action as in the interest of our customers, and as prompted by conservative rules of business conduct. It is, furthermore, in harmony with the requirements of the National Banking Laws.

We make this public announcement of the action of the Board of Directors, trusting that our customers, and the public, will understand that our purpose is only to adopt a proper banking rule on behalf of all parties concerned.

Kentucky Mules.

In South Africa the American mule is considered far superior to the animals imported from Argentina, according to censular reports. The Missouri or Kentucky mule is the best suited for South Africa. One hundred mules were recently imported from the United States and they have proved so satisfactory that a contract for two hundred more has just been closed. The mules must be fourteen and one-half hands, deep girth, good bone and short legged and must be between four and seven years old. The price paid for American mules in South Africa is slightly less than $250.
